ORDER AND NOTICE
OF INITIAL CONFERENCE

RONNIE ABRAMS, United States District Judge:

This case has been assigned to me for all purposes. It is hereby:

ORDERED that, by June 21, 2024, the parties submit a joint letter, not to exceed five (5) pages, providing the following information in separate paragraphs:

1. A brief description of the nature of the action and the principal defenses thereto;
2. A brief explanation of why jurisdiction and venue lie in this Court. If any party is a corporation, the letter shall state both the place of incorporation and the principal place of business. If any party is a partnership, limited partnership, limited liability company or trust, the letter shall state the citizenship of each of the entity's members, shareholders, partners and/or trustees;
3. A brief description of all contemplated and/or outstanding motions;
4. A brief description of any discovery that has already taken place, and/or that which will be necessary for the parties to engage in meaningful settlement negotiations;
5. A brief description of prior settlement discussions (without disclosing the parties' offers or settlement positions) and the prospect of settlement;
6. The estimated length of trial; and
7. Any other information that the parties believe may assist the Court in advancing the case to settlement or trial, including, but not limited to, a description of any dispositive issue or novel issue raised by the case.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that, by June 21, 2024, the parties jointly submit to the Court a proposed case management plan and scheduling order. A template for the order is available at <https://nysd.uscourts.gov/hon-ronnie-abrams>. The status letter and the proposed case management plan should be filed electronically, consistent with the Court's Electronic Case Filing (ECF) Rules & Instructions, which are available at <https://nysd.uscourts.gov/rules/ecf-related-instructions>. The parties should adjust the standard proposed case management plan and scheduling order, however, to address the additional scheduling issues raised by the Local Patent Rules, which are available at the Local Rules of the United States District Courts for the Southern and Eastern Districts of New York, available at https://www.nysd.uscourts.gov/sites/default/files/local\_rules/2021-10-15%20Joint%20Local%20Rules.pdf.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that counsel for all parties appear for an initial status conference on June 28, 2024 at 2:00 p.m. If Defendants have been properly served and the parties are available to proceed with an initial status conference prior to June 28, 2024, the parties shall notify the Court and propose an earlier date for the conference. If Defendants have not yet been properly served, have not filed a responsive pleading, and/or the parties otherwise seek to adjourn the conference, they shall notify the Court by no later than June 21, 2024. Unless the parties request otherwise, the Court will hold this conference by telephone. The parties shall use the following dial-in information to call in to the conference: Call-in Number: (888) 363-4749; Access Code: 1015508. This conference line is open to the public.

Plaintiff is directed to serve Defendants with a copy of this order and to file an affidavit on ECF certifying that such service has been effectuated.

SO ORDERED.
